Dear Rob and Angelo

We would like to take this opportunity to commend R & A Cabinets on your outstanding work performed in designing and building our new kitchen.

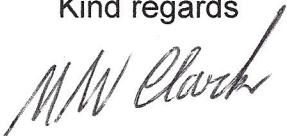

We were impressed by the service support afforded to us and guided by your experience and expertise by coming to our home to consult and see to further develop our ideas and incorporate into building our practical kitchen.

The time and care by every person involved in building our new kitchen proves and highlights their skills, experience and craftsmanship.

The final kitchen product that was delivered and installed proves and shows the extraordinary commitment to excellence, service which is beyond our expectations.

It is without any hesitation that we commend the team at R&A Cabinets in custom design, building and installing superior quality products.

Kind regards
